In the Shadow of the Anti-Semitic Massacre in Pittsburgh: A Conference to Witness Anti-Semitism

In the shadow of the anti-Semitic massacre in Pittsburgh, a conference on anti-Semitism was held this year in New York, under the title "The challenge of campuses versus anti-Semitism and anti-Zionism." The conference was organized by the World Zionist Organization and the American Zionist movement. The event took place with the participation of the Israeli Consul in New York Ambassador Danny Dayan, Deputy and Acting Director of the World Zionist Organization Mr. Yaakov Hagoel, President of AZM.

Richard Heideman and Rabbi Joseph Potasnik, Vice President of the Rabbis in New York, and 300 leaders of American Jewry. Deputy Chairman of the World Zionist Organization Yaakov HaGoel said: "Hatred of the Jews has come to the land of freedom, not from last week, and we see a process that has seen more anti-Semitic incidents in the last decade than in the past year."
